

The University
Of Sheffield.

CITY College
An International
Faculty Of
The University.

Computer Science Department

Internship for Technology Consulting Services for Entrepreneurial Endeavors

Effort required: 2 hours per week

Duration of internship: end of Fall semester 2016

Number of positions: 4

Applies for: 3rd level Undergraduate Students at the Computer Science Department

CS students will act as ICT consultants to BAED students who wish assistance defining and realizing technology-oriented products/services. More specifically, the responsibilities include:

- working with clients to define the scope of IT-based solutions
- defining software, hardware and network requirements
- analysing IT requirements and giving independent and objective advice on the use of IT
- seek ways to apply technology to business processes or to new products
- propose appropriate technical solutions
- research and provide information on technological trends
- advise on options, risks, costs, benefits, impact of alternative technological solutions

The relevant skills required in order to apply for the internship are listed below:

- very good knowledge of the IT/Telecom technologies
- communication and interpersonal skills
- ability to communicate technical information to non-IT clients and colleagues ability to learn quickly
- teamwork skills
- logical approach to problem solving/analytical skills
- confident decision making
- flexibility and adaptability

The positions of this internship are competitive. Students will have to go through an interview process.

Application deadline: Send an email of interest to hatziapostolou@city.academic.gr by 4/11/2016 (Friday)